SITUATION:

The Syrian conflict is the result of a broad movement of protests against the Baathist regime of Bachar Al-assad which begins with anti-regime peaceful protests on March 15, 2011.

The movement, which is repressed by the Syrian forces, becomes gradually conflict between two armed camps in the middle of civilians. Nearly 60,000 people were killed, including many civilians (mens, womens, childrens) according to the Office of the United Nations for Human Rights.

IN 2013, BOMBINGS AND FIGHTINGS ARE CARRYING ON SYRIA AND THE DEATH TOLL INCREASES BY THE DAY.
